One card. Your first impression.

Notice the image, compare an interpretation, and return to what actually happened.

Date

Deck / source

My question - something I can notice or influence

Card

Orientation / position

What I notice in the image before looking up a meaning

A reference meaning, and how it fits or does not fit my situation

One small, proportionate action I can choose

Follow-up - what happened, what changed, and what did not fit

When I will review this entry

Three cards. One useful thread.

Choose positions first: Situation / Obstacle / Next step, or your own.

Date

Deck / source

My question

01 / Position

Situation

Card / orientation

My observation

02 / Position

Obstacle

Card / orientation

My observation

03 / Position

Next step

Card / orientation

My observation

How the cards connect - what supports or challenges my first reading?

One small next step, with a sensible limit

Review date / follow-up: what actually happened?